Halacha of the Week	Which comes first this Motzei Shabbos, Chanukah lights or Havdalah? There is a dispute among poskim concerning this question. Normally, in selecting the sequence of two mitzvos we are guided by the principle of tadir v'she'eino tadir – tadir kodem (the more frequent mitzvah is performed first). As such, the Taz (681:1) rules that Havdalah is recited first. However, the Mechaber and the Rama, followed by the Magen Avraham, Eliyahu Raba and Gra, rule that Ner Chanukah comes first. They reason that delaying the departure of Shabbos is more important than the principle of tadir. A second reason to prioritize Chanukah is that one performs Pirsumei Nisa (publicizing the miracle) with Ner Chanukah. In Shul, the accepted minhag is to light Chanukah candles first. Possibly, this is because the great Pirsumei Nisa for an entire shul is very significant. At home one should follow his own minhag. If one has no minhag, he can choose what to do since both are valid minhagim.
